SAN DIEGO JEWISH BOOK FAIR AUTHOR LECTURE AND LUNCH: Michael Bart, Until Our Last Breath: A Holocaust Story of Love and Partisan Resistance

Topic: Literature and the Arts

Region: Mid-Coastal/Central

Michael Bart's father told him, "Doing the right thing isn't always easy, but it's always right." Bart's homage to his parents, their tremendous courage and love and the cause for which they risked their lives is "the right thing." In this moving story, Bart joins his ten years of research with SDCC professor Laurel Corona's straightforward writing. They intertwine Leizer's and Zenia's biography with the collective history of the Vilna ghetto and the resistance movement Nekamah (The Avengers) led by Abba Kovner, and also with the wider theme of 20th century world history. (Laurel Corona, co-author, not appearing.)
