

Sunday, December 21, 2008

San Diego Jewish Book Fair 2008

Two Events of Special Interest to CBI Members

Daniel C. Kurtzer and Scott B. Lasensky:
Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace:
American Leadership in the Middle East
Tues., Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Daniel
Kurtzer

Scott Lasensky

This event, co-sponsored by CBI features Daniel Kurtzer, former US ambassador to both Israel and Egypt, and Middle East expert and widely published author and commentator Scott Lasensky. Kurtzer and Lasensky will share ten core lessons to guide the effort of future American peace negotiators in the Middle East. After nine months of groundbreaking consultations with statesmen, political leaders and civilians who have defined the Arab-

Israeli peace process in recent years, Kurtzer and Lasensky reveal what works and what does not in this distinctive diplomatic arena.

Book Signing Follows – Admission: $14.00 Member/$17.00 Non-Member
 Lawrence Family JCC, Jacobs Family Campus

go to top

We value spiritual enrichment, social justice, and meaningful Jewish education.
 – From Our Mission Statement

CBI Member and Author Michael Bart:
Until Our Last Breath: A Holocaust Story of Love and Partisan Resistance

Tues., Nov. 11 at 12:00 p.m.

Michael Bart

Michael Bart will speak on his new book. The title comes from a speech given in the Vilna ghetto by resistance leader Abba Kovner where he said, "We shall not go like sheep to slaughter, we shall fight until our last breath." Bart took personal information and documentation shared by his parents, spent over 10 years researching their experiences in the Vilna ghetto, and as members of the Partisans of Vilna with Abba Kovner's Avengers group.

The book has been nominated for a Sophie Brody Award, an award from the American Library Association for the most distinguished contribution to Jewish literature published in the United States. This national award is named in memory for CBI member Sophie Brody.

Book Signing Follows – Admission: $13.00 Member/$16.00 Non-Member
 Glatt Kosher Box Lunch included. Reservations required - Rush tickets $12 at the door - no food served. Lawrence Family JCC, Jacobs Family Campus