

Midrash Shabbat

The popular Midrash Shabbat program, a once-a-month lunch-and-learn program which follows regular Shabbat services on select Saturday mornings. Bookmark this page or look for a link on the homepage for updated dates and topics. This is what we currently have planned:

Saturday, May 9th. The story of the resistance of Jewish partisans to the Nazi murderers remains largely untold. San Diegan Michael Bart, son of Tifereth Israel members Zenia and Leo Bart, z"l, will share the fascinating story of his parents' life during WWII with the Jewish partisan group "Nekama" organized by the legendary resistance leader Abba Kovner. Michael recently documented his parents' experiences in his book Until Our Last Breath - A Holocaust Story of Love and Partisan Resistance. Shabbat services and a light Kiddush lunch will precede the study session. There is no charge for this activity. Everyone is welcome to attend and no RSVP is needed.

Learn more about Until Our Last Breath at Michael Bart's website...

We hope that you will join us!

We are currently seeking sponsors for future luncheons. The cost of a sponsorship is $225.00. If you would like to sponsor a luncheon please contact the synagogue office at (619) 697-6001.
